

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, MARCH 30, 1901.

No. 13

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Will Benham, of Phoenix, spent Tuesday here.

H. E. Campbell returned from Phoenix Saturday last.

Mrs. R. H. Cameron returned Monday from a visit to Los Angeles.

Jerry Woodbridge, the well-known sheep raiser, is in Phoenix seriously ill.

The Racket Store is headquarters for the finest cigars, either wholesale or retail.

For capricious weather the present month of March is maintaining the record.

E. S. Gosney returned Wednesday from a trip to the cities of New York, Boston and Washington.

Harry Jacoby is spending the week at Randsburg, Cal., looking over the mining situation in that vicinity.

Navajo blankets, curios and photographs of Grand Canyon and other points of interest can be had at the Racket Store.

Marvin Beal and Jack Wright returned Wednesday from the Copper King mines where they have been working for the past three months.

L. W. Quinlan returned from Prescott Monday, where he had been to visit his friend, John M. Doherty, who is dangerously ill at the Sister's hospital in that place.

The passenger and mail trains have been late every day this week. This has, however, ceased to be news, as it has been the rule for trains to be late for the past three months.

The new game law is published elsewhere in this issue. T. S. Bunch, one of the members of the fish and game commission, declares it his intention to enforce the law, and will prosecute all offenders to the fullest extent of the law.

W. S. Hancock, for many years master mechanic of the Needles division of the Santa Fe Pacific railroad, was a west bound passenger on No. 1 this morning. Mr. Hancock is now representing the mechanical department of the Waters Pierce Oil Company, of St. Louis, and finds it a more agreeable position than railroading.

E. S. Perkins, member of the territorial council from Apache county, stopped over here on his way to St. Johns. Arriving Sunday and leaving Tuesday morning. Mr. Perkins served his constituents with ability and discretion and retains their fullest confidence. He is a member of the legislative committee to receive President McKinley on his visit to Phoenix in May.

Andrew Smith, superintendent of the lines from Albuquerque to Los Angeles, and D. R. Davis, superintendent of the coast division of the Western Union Telegraph company were looking over the lines along the Santa Fe Pacific railroad last week. They were also making arrangements for the putting up of two additional wires and the work will commence in May. One of the wires will be for the use of the railroad company and the other for commercial business.

T. E. Pulliam left Sunday for Los Angeles.

The latest style L'Aiglon belts at the New York Store.

John Woody returned Sunday from a visit to Fresno, Cal.

A goodly number of tourists have visited Flagstaff this week.

Found—A bunch of keys. The owner can have same by calling at this office.

Try the Club House Flour of P. R. Weatherford & Co. There is none better.

H. L. Christy and N. O'Neill Christy, of Pittsburgh, Pa., were visitors here Monday.

If in need of school supplies of any kind you can find them at the Racket Store at the lowest prices.

Prof. McMillon has been giving exhibitions of his wonderful strength at the Parlor exchange this week.

The Racket Store has received a lot of fine rocking chairs which are being offered at reasonable prices. Call and see them.

A. C. Minter and wife, of Albuquerque, N. M., are in town. Mr. Minter is a representative of the Journal-Democrat of that city.

Charles McNaughton, left Wednesday for Red Horse tank, in the Grand Canyon forest reserve, to resume his position as range rider.

E. E. Ellinwood has a large sack of garden seeds for free distribution. The seeds were sent to him by Hon. J. F. Wilson, delegate to congress.

G. W. Glowner went to Williams Tuesday to meet some mining experts who will examine some mining properties in the Grand canyon for which Mr. Glowner is attorney for the owners.

A. F. Hermann, supervisor of the Grand Canyon forest reserve, returned Monday from a trip to the reserve. There are no Navajo Indians in the forest reserve and have not been for more than two months.

P. D. Berry, proprietor of the Grand View hotel, Grand Canyon of Arizona, spent several days here this week. The Grand View hotel is now open for visitors. A stage line connects with trains on the Grand Canyon railroad at the end of track and tourists are taken direct to the best hotel on the rim of the canyon.

Flagstaff Lodge B. P. O. E. on Tuesday night elected the following officers for the ensuing year: J. E. Ruffin, exalted ruler; G. E. Sullivan, esteemed leading knight; S. F. Quay, esteemed loyal knight; Charles F. McGonigle, esteemed lecturing knight; L. W. Quinlan, secretary; J. G. Verkamp, treasurer; L. C. O'Donnell, tiler; E. E. Ellinwood, trustee; Dr. E. S. Miller, representative to the grand lodge.

Julius Lesser's residence at Winslow was burglarized on Friday night by three negroes. Some silverware, clothing and a sealskin sacque, valued at $300, were taken. Two of the thieves were arrested at Gallup by Marshal Smith on a telegram received from Marshal Cannon of Winslow. The third one was caught at Holbrook by Deputy Sheriff J. P. Burdette. Some of the stolen property was recovered, but the sealskin sacque was probably hidden away at Gallup before the thieves left that town.

R. J. Arey and M. C. Sharpneck, of Williams, spent Tuesday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks-Arnold, of New York, were visitors here this week.

The Commercial hotel has put up a couple of handsome signs this week.

The Racket Store buys and sells second-hand goods of every description.

John Schmidt and A. C. Winkler have bought the Kline ranch of Dr. D. J. Brannen.

L. S. Drum is in from Stoneman Lake. He has been spending the winter in Phoenix.

P. H. Murphy, who has been spending the winter in Redlands, Cal., returned Monday.

"First it blew, then it snowed, then it friz," which means the weather conditions for the past few days.

The board of supervisors will hold their regular quarterly session next week, commencing Monday.

P. R. Weatherford & Co. are exclusive agents for the celebrated Club House flour, the king of flour.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

F. B. Alsop left Thursday for Agua Caliente Springs to try the virtues of the waters of that spring for an attack of rheumatism.

County Treasurer Hoxworth commenced selling the property on which taxes have become delinquent on Wednesday. The delinquent list was smaller than for several years past.

A mistake was made in last week's SUN in the item referring to the placing of electric lights in the Reading Room. The item should read: The Reading Room Committee, leaving out the words "of the Methodist church."

Pete Bender on Sunday last submitted to the operation of the removal of an eye which was injured several weeks ago. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. W. S. Robinson and Mr. Bender will be able to resume his former occupation within a few days.

E. S. Clark returned Monday from a trip to Pittsburgh, Pa., and Washington, D. C. He accompanied the remains of W. H. Thompson, deceased, to Pittsburgh and attended the funeral services. The funeral services were under the auspices of the Knights Templar, of which deceased was a member. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in that city.

Wanted—An energetic and reliable man or woman who will canvass Flagstaff and neighborhood for the sale of the greatest and most interesting book ever issued on Northern Arizona, "In and Around the Grand Canyon," by George Wharton James, whose exhaustive studies extending over many years are well-known. For full particulars apply at this office.

Hon. M. J. Riordan, member of the territorial council from Coconino county, returned from Phoenix on Sunday. During the legislative session he was always at his post and worked for the welfare of his county and the territory, and made an excellent record. The people of Coconino are proud of their member of the council of the twenty-first legislature.

A lodge of Elks will be instituted at Bisbee on April 15.

The Racket Store will store your household goods at reasonable rates.

C. P. Reilly, of Cincinnati, of Ohio, is visiting his brother, John I. Reilly.

Thomas Sayer, the sheep raiser, is in from his range north of here this week.

A. W. Jurden left yesterday for Phoenix and other southern Arizona towns.

P. R. Weatherford & Co. have a shoe talk for our readers this week and it will interest you.

Mrs. J. Y. Adamson returned from Los Angeles Tuesday, and left for Seligman the following day.

The celebrated Club House flour, kept by P. R. Weatherford & Co. will please the best bread lovers.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

Charles H. Vary has opened a bicycle repair shop in the building next door to the Racket Store. He is surely filling a "long felt want."

A. Redewill, the "Piano King" of Arizona, was here on business Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Redewill reports business in the territory as being good in his line.

J. A. Twichell and W. Calbick, of Pittsburgh, Pa., arrived Tuesday. They are representatives of the Pittsburgh Copper Mining Company, and they left today for the mines in the Navajo reservation.

It is a little cool in the Salt River valley the Gazette says: "Smudging was resorted to among the orchardists the past two or three nights so cold has it been. However, no further damage has occurred to the orange orchards."

Joseph Kuhns, who has for many years been general storekeeper for the Santa Fe Pacific at Albuquerque, has tendered his resignation to take place April 1. Mr. Kuhns is a member of the firm of D. Weiller & Co., grocers, of Albuquerque, and will devote his time to that business.

Quite an amusing sight was witnessed on Railroad avenue on Thursday evening by a young man trying to ride a wild and untamed broncho, who would not allow him to mount. He struck the ground with a dull thud, while the horse started down the avenue in search of more cowboys to conquer.

The handsome nine-room, two-story brick residence of Judge C. M. Frazier, on North Central avenue in the Simms addition, Phoenix, was entirely destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. But little was saved from the burning building. The family escaping with only the clothing they had on.

Mr. Percival Lowell, of Boston, and owner of the Lowell observatory of this place, arrived Thursday night and will remain here during the next two months. He returned last week from a trip to Europe. During his stay here Mr. Lowell will occupy the Greenlaw residence on Leroux street. Mars is in favorable position for observation and Mr. Lowell and his assistants will devote their time to the study of that planet.